Numb. 296.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY October 20, to SATURDAY October 27, 1739.

LONDON, July 28.

THE Recruits for the Foot-Guards & marching Regiments have been rais'd ſo readily, that they are almoſt already compleated.

On Thurſday an Order of the King and Council was ſent to the Right Hon^ble. the Lords of the Treaſury and Board of Admiralty, ſignifying it was his Majeſty's Pleaſure that the Embargo laid on the Shipping ſhould be taken off.

We hear that on Tueſday and Yeſterday eight Warrants were granted by the Lords of the Admiralty, for Letters of Marque and Reprizal

The five following Ships, viz the Golden Fleece, the Queen Eſther, the Thomas and Dinah, the Lady Anne, and the Diana, are lately hired by the Commiſſioners of the Victualling-Office to carry Stores to Gibraltar, and are now taking in their Lading at Iron-Gate with all Expedition, in order to proceed on their Voyage forthwith.

The Tower Galley, Capt. Wingfield, outward-bound for Placentia and Newfoundland, on the Fiſhery, being ſtoutly mann'd and well arm'd, is fallen down the River, and expects every Hour a Letter of Marque to proceed on her Voyage.

We hear that the Griffin, formerly one of his Majeſty's Fireſhips, and purchas'd by ſome Merchants of this City, is fitting out with the utmoſt Expedition, in order to make Reprizals on the Spaniards. The ſaid Ship mounts 32 Teer Guns and Eighteen Swivel Guns, and is to carry one hundred and forty Men.

The Owners of the Ship St. John, of about 500 Tons, lying at Ponto de Goro, in the Gulph of Venice, richly laden, have applied for Letters of Marque, which it is not doubted but will be granted them.

Yeſterday it was currently reported that Admiral Haddock had taken a French Man of War under Spaniſh Colours, near Cadiz.

The ſaid Admiral we hear, has ſent Three Men of War to cruiſe on the Barbary Shoar.

We hear alſo that Convoys will be appointed for all Ships bound to the Southward.

On Sunday laſt Admiral Balchen, in the Ruſſel, together with the Namure, Buckingham, Oxford, Superbe, Prince of Orange and Lyon Men of War, anchor'd in the Downs, having received Orders to repair thither directly.

The William and Mary, and Katherine Yatchs are alſo ordered thither.

We hear, that the Spaniards have ſeiz'd ſeveral of our Merchant Ships at Cadiz.

Laſt Sunday Night there was a great Meeting of the Miniſters of State at Sir Robert Walpole's Houſe at Chelſea; and the ſame Night a Meſſenger was diſpatched to the Right Hon. Horatio Walpole at the Hague.

We hear for certain that no French Fiſhing Veſſels are ſuffer'd on our Coaſts, the Tenders, &c. having Orders to oblige them to go off, as ſoon as they diſcover them.

On Saturday laſt a large Quantity of Military Stores were delivered from the Ordnance Office, and ſhipp'd on board the John

John and Elizabeth, Capt: Matthews, who is bound for Scotland, and is to ſail with the utmoſt Expedition.

Yeſterday Morning 250 Volunteers were put on board ſeveral Barges from the Savoy, in order to embark for Gibraltar and Port-Mahon, to augment the Regiments there.

July 26. Yeſterday Advice came, that Admiral Haddock, had received, on the 3d Inſtant, ſome Inſtructions from Great-Britain, in purſuance of which he ſail'd immediately from Gibraltar, to execute the Orders he had received; but their Contents were not known.

The above Inſtructions were ſent to Lizbon, and carry'd from thence to Gibraltar by the Right Honourable Auguſtus Fitzroy, and deliver'd by him to the Admiral.

There were Letters in Town from Cadiz, the Contents whereof import, that Orders were come there, from Mr. Keene, to all the Britiſh Ships to depart from thence directly; and to ſtop all Ships of that Nation they met, bound to Spain; and alſo adviſing the Merchants to ſecure their Effects with the utmoſt ſpeed.

This Week five Meſſengers arrived at Kenſington, and the ſame Number have been diſpatch'd, with Inſtructions to the Britiſh Miniſters at the Court of Paris & Madrid, Lisbon, the Hague and Stockholm, Vienna and Pruſſia.

The Prince Frederick, a ſecond Rate of 80 Guns, is order'd to be finiſhed with the utmoſt Expedition for the Sea.

We hear that Capt. John Hemmington, who has been 32 Years a Captain, is to have the Boyne, a Ninety Gun Ship lately rebuilt at Deptford.

July 28. We hear from good Authority, that fourteen Regiments of Foot and Dragoons will be rais'd againſt the next Year if an Accommodation doth not take Place in the mean Time.

General Sabine's Regiment of Foot is to be reviewed by his Majeſty this Day ſe'nnight on Hounſlow Heath.

A great Number of Engliſh, Dutch, French, and other Merchant ſhips, are in the Bay of Cadiz, together with ſix ſpaniſh Men of War behind the Puntals.

His Exceſſency the Count de Cambis, formerly Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Court of France to this Court, is daily expected to return with the Quality of Amſſador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the ſaid Court, his Houſe in Hanover-ſquare being fitting up for his Reception.

Auguſt 2. We hear, that a certain Governor near Cales, (remarkable for his ill Treatment of ſuch of the Engliſh ſailors as have fallen into his Hands) ſent lately a Meſſage to Admiral Haddock, that he ſhould be glad of a Viſit from him, if the Admiral thought proper; to which the other reply'd, That at preſent, he had ſome particular Orders to execute; after which, if he had an Opportunity, he would not fail to accept of his Compliment, &c.

CHARLES-TOWN, Oct. 27.

On the 18th Inſtant, died Gilbert Higginſon Eſq; Surveyor of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for this Province and the Bahama-Iſlands.

On Monday laſt arrived in this Harbour Capt. John Snow in a Sloop in Nine Weeks from the Bay of Honduras, he was forc'd to put in here for want of Proviſions, having no Victuals nor Drink, himſelf and his Crew being almoſt ſtarved, the ſaid Captain informs us, that when he got off the Havanna, he met with a terrible Hurricane, which greatly damag'd the Veſſel and forc'd him down the Bay of Mexico, and ſays that not long after he ſaw Five Sail of Spaniſh Veſſels, two of which were Men of War, and the other three were Merchant-Ships, and which he ſuppoſed came from Mexico convoyed by the aboveſaid Men of War, the Spaniards no ſooner ſaw the Sloop but they gave her Chaſe, but the Sloop going ſwifteſt they left her to proceed on her Voyage, the next Day he ſaw a Man of War Snow (but whether Engliſh or Spaniſh he was uncertain) which alſo chaſed him, and continued her Chaſe two whole Days, and when finding it was in vain to purſue her, they left their Chaſe and went another Way.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Hague, Auguſt 2, N. S.

SIR,

THE brave Step the King has taken to vindicate the Honour of his Crown, and the free Navigation of his Subjects hath been univerſally applauded here. But how the Spaniards will underſtand it, whether as a Declaration of War, or a private Conteſt between the Merchants of the two Nations, that muſt depend upon the Councils of the moſt Chriſtian King. It is certain the Spaniſh Ambaſſador without any freſh Orders from his Court, on hearing of the Proclamation's being iſſued out, did immediately repair to Verſailles, and made heavy Complaints to that Court of the bold Step the Engliſh had made: And it is believed he will back thoſe verbal Complaints with a Memorial.

What regard will be ſhewn thereto on the Part of the Court of France Time will ſoon diſcover. It is to be hoped, that tho' ſhe has all along ſecretly encouraged the Spaniard in his long bad Uſage of us, yet will ſhe not openly embroil herſelf on that Score with Great-Britain. We expreſsly refuſed her Mediation, it is true, but yet did we ſhew a very great Regard to her Advice, which was to have Patience, and not to proceed to Extremities. It is reported that on the Britiſh Ambaſſador's communicating the Reſolution his Maſter had taken to the Cardinal, his Eminency ſhould only have made Anſwer, That he could have wiſh'd That had been done either ſome Time before, or after the Affair of the Intermarriages between the Children of the 2 Crowns; upon which Account it cou'd be no agreeable Spectacle to one to ſee the other ill uſed.

I am, Sir, Yours, &c.

LONDON, July 31.

Letters from Madrid adviſe, That if the Court of Great-Britain ſhall ſtill refuſe to execute the Conditions of which Spain demands the Accompliſhment, all the Effects of the South Sea Company would be ſequeſtred; and that two Advice-Ships were actually ſent from Cadiz to the Havannah, with Orders, provitionally, to ſhut up there the Factories of that Company, and to entirely ſuſpend the Commerce with Great-Britain for Negroes; and that very great Military Preparations were making all over Spain as well by Land as by Sea.

Laſt Saturday was launch'd at Mr. Bud's Dock, the Totneſs, a fine large Ship, which is to be fitted out with all poſſible Expedition, with a Letter of Marque to make Reprizals on the Spaniards.

And, that the two Spaniſh Ships in the River are excepted in the Order for taking the Embargo.

The Ships in the Lizbon and Oporto Trade have all had Protections granted them.

Briſtol, July 28.

The Embargo was this Day taken off all Ships and Veſſels whatſoever.

An Expreſs arrived here laſt Saturday Night from London to the Magiſtrates of this City, on which Account the Conſtables were conven'd at the Council Houſe; and at Ten o'Clock that Night were order'd to impreſs all able-bodied Men, as well Landmen as Seamen, for his Majeſty's ſervice. The Magiſtrates continued at the Council-Houſe 'till two or Three in the Morning; by which Time the Conſtables had ſecured near 100 in Bridewell. Sunday and Monday Nights the Impreſs was continued, when upwards of 100 more were taken into Cuſtody. Tueſday they paſſed their ſeveral Examinations, when only about ſeventy were judged fit for the ſervice of the Navy

We hear that if there ſhould be a War, a Fo[illegible] will arrive here every Day from London.
